DISCLAIMER/WAIVER

COLORADO MOTOR VEHICLE REPAIR ACT (MVRA) WAIVER

The MVRA requires any auto repair facility to obtain written consent or a waiver (oral or written) before making any repairs to a vehicle, customers must also receive a repair estimate orally or in writing. The estimate and work order must contain certain disclosures (total cost (excluding taxes and towing charges), estimated completion date, returned parts, cost of reassembly (if possible)).

To give up the right to a written estimate, the customer must agree to the BOLD type: “I DO NOT WISH TO RECEIVE ANY ESTIMATE, EITHER WRITTEN OR ORAL TO WHICH I AM ENTITLED BY LAW, BEFORE REPAIRS ARE AUTHORIZED”.

X _____

STORAGE CHARGES

The MVRA STATES: “A STORAGE FEE MAY NOT BE CHARGED UNLESS A WRITTEN DOCUMENT, FOR THE AMOUNT IS REACHED. A STORAGE FEE MAY BE CHARGED BEGINNING ON THE FOURTH DAY, IF A MOTOR VEHICLE IS NOT REMOVED WITHIN THREE DAYS AFTER CUSTOMER IS NOTIFIED THAT REPAIRS HAVE BEEN COMPLETED EXCLUDING SATURDAYS, SUNDAYS, LEGAL HOLIDAYS, AND ANY DAYS THE REPAIR FACILITY IS CLOSED FOR BUSINESS.”

Zach’s Transmission and 4x4 storage charges: $20.00 per day.

X _____

FUEL CHARGES

The Customer must provide a minimum of ¼ tank of fuel for operation of your vehicle while in Zach’s Transmission care. This usually gives us enough fuel to get through the repair process. If an employee of Zach’s Transmission need to add fuel to your vehicle, a charge of $15.00 per gallon will be added to your invoice (to cover fuel and labor costs).

X _____

MECHANICS LIENS/ ABANDONED VEHICLES

Zach's Transmission and 4x4 doesn't want or need your vehicle. We want to repair your drivetrain problems. Without your payment, we get no reward for our labor. Please pick-up and pay for the work agreed upon or we have the right to apply for mechanics liens, repossessions or possible title acquisition. These processes take time, have costs and there is lots of paperwork. If you cannot afford the work, lets talk and find a solution.
